These names will be submitted in a secure and confidential manner by our SWO President to our churchwide Women of the ELCA's database so that mailings from Chicago come to an interested person. Our SWO secretary will use the information to send out emails/land mails regarding synodical events and to officially notify each unit of our convention/gathering that occurs every two years. Our SWO Treasurer will use this information to communicate with your unit Treasurer. Your conference coordinator will use this information to keep you informed about planning meetings and invitations for conference gatherings and to "stay in touch" with you.
