

Join us for Bible Study with Rev. Brooke Petersen

(author of the Summer 2025 Gather Bible Study)

“Where two or more are gathered: Flourishing in relationships”

In an ever-evolving world, the importance of relationships remains steadfast. As we navigate through the complexities of modern life, the bonds we form with others provide a source of strength, inspiration, and growth. This summer, delve into a profound exploration of the dynamics of human connection.

The Event will be held online via Zoom. You can either join on your own or gather a group and view together for a group rate registration.

Rev. Petersen will share tips on leading the 3 sessions of the study, as well as some insights that will enhance the learning experience for everyone!
